If you're lucky enough to still be under 25 then The Old Vic has some fantastic news; you can buy tickets for our shows for just £12. That's 100 £12 seats across the auditorium for every performance.

With average ticket prices reaching nearly £50 across the West End this is a huge saving. So instead of hitting the pub, why not pop into The Old Vic and watch some of the finest acting talents in London. Recent star attractions include Ethan Hawke, Rebecca Hall and of course Old Vic Artistic Director Kevin Spacey – Hollywood brought to your hometown!

To book your Aditya Mittal Tickets for Under 25s, all you have to do is call 0844 871 7628 and remember to bring proof of age when you come to collect them.

Alternatively, you can fill out the application form across the page and join our Under 25s club. Club members benefit from a free membership card (which saves you presenting ID every time you book), the opportunity to attend Q&As and backstage tours as well as the chance to win free tickets.
