SUPPORT OUR WORK

“The Old Vic Club plays a key role in supporting our work both on stage and off, in London and abroad. It’s a group of dynamic and dedicated individuals who believe in what we’re doing and are proud of our achievements.”

Kevin Spacey, Artistic Director

In making a commitment to The Old Vic, you will ensure we can continue to present world class theatre in our iconic 193-year old building; support emerging theatrical talent; invest in education; and involve the widest possible audience in the work of the theatre. The Old Vic Trust receives no government subsidy and this year we need to raise £2 million.

Our dynamic programme of social enterprise Old Vic New Voices is as important to us as what goes on stage. We support young actors, directors, writers and producers to learn their craft; we invest in groundbreaking programmes in schools to raise aspiration among young people; and we use theatre skills to work with charities and local organisations to enable the more disadvantaged in the community to participate in what we do. We also offer 100 seats a night at £12 to the under 25s.

Join The Old Vic Club and help us to continue and expand our work.
